Farewell!

REUVEN SHILOAH, retiring Minister of the Israel Embassy, said goodbye to a widely assorted group of guests yesterday at the cocktail party given in his honor by the Ambassador of Israel, Abba Eban.

There was ace Comedian Jerry Lewis who opens tonight at the Carter Barron. There was Senator Stuart Symington, who wasn't particularly happy because he "voted the other way" yesterday on the Civil Rights amendment, with Mrs. Symington; and there was Representative James Roosevelt, almost never found on the cocktail circuit, and Mrs. Roosevelt, whose dark hair and deep sun-tan was most effective with her white dress splashed in blue.

Jerry Lewis looks like Jerry Lewis, and when he was asked to act like Jerry Lewis, he said: "I never get on when it's noisy." He admitted that he's a ham. "I love an audience" he said, "anything over three people and I can get on."

There was a surprising turnout for a mid-summer party.

The dean of the diplomatic corps, Norwegian Ambassador, Wilhelm Munthe Morgenstjerne was there, and the Swiss Ambassador, Henry de Torrente, the Indian Ambassador, G. L. Mehta who came early and left early; Sir John Coulson, Charge d' Affaires of Great Britain, and the Charge d' Affaires of Greece, Phelon Cavalicrato, Turkey's Charge d' Affaires, Ihan Sarret, and Franc Primoze, Yugoslavian Minister.

Charles Lucet, Charge d'Affaires of France, with Francois de Laboulaye, Counselor of the French Embassy, and Egidio Ortona, Charge d'Affaires of Italy, made the rounds at the embassy chancery where there were two bars and two buffets on the reception room floor.

From the White House staff there were the Administrative Assistant to the President, Jack Martin, and Mrs. Martin; Max Rabb and Mrs. Rabb and Homer Gruenther.

Representative and Mrs. Hugh Scott joined the group and with Deputy Director of CIA, Lieut. Gen. Charles P. Cabell was Mrs. Cabell and her sister, Mrs. Donald Dun-ford, wife of Major General Dunford who's on a trip to Scandinavia.

Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Robert Schow were there and for more—Loy Henderson, Deputy Under Secretary of State; Robert Murphy, also Deputy Under Secretary of State, Elovius Mangor, First Secretary of the Norwegian Embassy, Rep. James Devereux, Mrs. Bedell Smith, former Solicitor General and Mrs. Simon Sobeloff.
